

Pescott Family Reunion

Thomas Trewitt Pescott and Mary Ann Dean were married on Easter Sunday, 9 April 1852. This weekend, 5–6 April 2002, we celebrate the 150th anniversary of that marriage.

where Mary and Thomas were married*

Thomas, Mary and their three children Elizabeth, Mary and Tom arrived aboard the Shalimar at Geelong on the 14th of November 1857. Seven more children were born in Geelong, giving 10 children in all, seven of whom had issue.

Thomas and Mary have 25 grandchildren, 58 great-grandchildren, 104 2nd great-grandchildren, 138 3rd great-grandchildren and 11 4th great-grandchildren – a total of 346 descendants to April 2002.

It is fitting that the reunion is being held at the Noble Street Uniting Church, since the family was closely connected with the church from the time they settled in Geelong. Thomas acted as church librarian, Sunday school teacher, later superintendent, and church trustee.

Dear

This note contains reminders, clarifications (I hope) and some last-minute arrangements.

Date of reunion Saturday and Sunday, 6 & 7 April, the weekend after Easter.

Venue Noble Street Uniting Church (not surprisingly) in Noble Street, Newtown, Geelong. The church is at the east end of Noble Street, not to be confused with All Saints Anglican Church also in Noble Street, but further to the west, nor with St Davids Uniting Church, near All Saints.

Noble Street runs east-west and forms a T-intersection with Latrobe Terrace, which is the city section of the Princes Highway from Melbourne. The Terrace is a busy road, so if you are travelling south (from the Melbourne direction) keep in the right-hand lane to negotiate the Noble Street exit. That exit is opposite the northern end of Kardinia Park.

Geelong is playing away during the reunion weekend, so parking in either Noble Street or Saffron Street (immediately behind the church) should not be too much of a problem. There are a number of off-street parking spots on church property off Saffron Street. Two spots will be reserved for (1) Gwyn Pescott (with the Beynon family) and (2) John Heathcote, because of walking disabilities. If you need similar consideration, let me know immediately.

All church facilities have wheelchair access.

Saturday evening meal will now be at the Sawers Arms Hotel (also known as Clatworthy's) in Noble Street, not far from the church, closer to Latrobe Terrace.

Sunday lunch. We will meet at the dry end of Cunningham Pier, which is close to a number of eateries, and then decide on a venue depending on the weather. If it is fine, we could proceed to the Eastern Beach area, as originally planned, or to Smorgy's at the wet end of the pier, if we need to be under cover. Unfortunately, the whole of the waterfront area now has metered parking.

Displays will be set out flat on trestle tables. Don't be overly concerned with modesty constraints when putting together a photographic display of your family and interests. We want to know something about you, as well as about your/our ancestors. (I have titled my display of pics 'Wal's Follies', which features a number of insanities that help to keep me sane.)

The tour has attracted more positive response than was indicated in the original 'pink slip' survey. Change of day from Sunday to Saturday is possibly a contributing factor. Initially, a 52-seater bus was ordered, and when numbers started to rise we ordered another bus, a 20-seater (Errol and Wyn acting as hosts). It looks now as if we will need to use private vehicles also.

The list of attendees is a test of my secretarial skills and your responses to requests for feedback. I hope it reflects a true state of affairs. Let me know immediately my sins of omission or of commission.

With best wishes,

THE PESCOTT SONG BOOK FOR ALL AGES

RING, BELLS, RING.

Ring, bells, ring! High up in the steeple:
Ring, bells, ring! Calling to the people.
Let us all give thanks and pray,
Let us praise the Lord always,
On this happy, happy, day,
Ring, bells, ring!
Bim, bom, bim, bom, bim, bom, bells!
Bim, bom, bim, bom, bim, bom, bells!
On this happy, happy day.
Ring, bells, ring!

WIDE, WIDE AS THE OCEAN.

Wide, wide as the ocean,
High as the heavens above;
Deep, deep as the deepest sea
Is my saviour's love.
I, though so unworthy
Still am a child of His care.
For His word teaches me
That His love reaches me
Everywhere.

STORIES OF JESUS.

Tell me the stories of Jesus I love to hear;
Things I would ask Him to tell me, if He were here;
Scenes by the wayside, tales of the sea
Stories of Jesus, tell them to me.

First let me hear how the children stood round His knee
And I shall fancy His blessing, resting on me
Words full of kindness, deeds full of grace;
All in the love-light of Jesu's face.

Into the city I'd follow the children's band;
Waving a branch of the palm tree high in my hand;
One of His heralds, yes I would sing,
Loudest hosannas, "Jesus is king!"

Tell me, in accents of wonder, how rolled the sea;
Tossing a boat in a tempest, on Galilee;
And how the Master, ready and kind,
Chided the billows, and hushed the wind.

Tell how the sparrow that twitters, on yonder tree,
And the sweet meadow-side lily, may speak to me.
Give me their message, for I would hear
How Jesus taught us our Father's care.

TELL ME THE OLD, OLD STORY.

Tell me the old, old story of unseen things above;
Of Jesus and His glory, of Jesus and his love.
Tell me the story simply, as to a little child;
For I am weak and weary, and helpless and defiled.
Tell me the old, old story,
Tell me the old, old story,
Tell me the old, old story
Of Jesus and his love.

DAISY BELL.

There is a flower within my heart,
Daisy, Daisy!
Planted one day by a glancing dart,
Planted by Daisy Bell!
Whether she loves me or loves me not,
Sometimes it's hard to tell;
Yet I am willing to share the lot
Of beautiful Daisy Bell.
Daisy, Daisy, give me your answer do!
I'm half crazy, all for the love of you!
It won't be a stylish marriage,
I can't afford a carriage;
But you'll look sweet, upon the seat
Of a bicycle built for two!

THE OLD GRAY MARE.

Oh, the old gray mare she ain't what she used to be;
Ain't what she used to be, ain't what she used to be.
The old gray mare she ain't what she used to be,
Many long years ago.
Many long years ago, many long years ago.
The old gray mare she ain't what she used to be
Many long years ago.

The old gray mare she kicked on the whiffle-tree,
Kicked on the whiffle-tree, kicked on the whiffle-tree;
The old gray mare she kicked on the whiffle-tree,
Many long years ago.
Many long years ago, Many long years ago,
The old gray mare she ain't what she used to be,
Many long years ago.

GUNDAGAI.

There's a track winding back
To an old-fashioned shack
Along the road to Gundagai.
Where the blue gums are growing,
And the Murrumbidgee's flowing,
Beneath the sunny sky.
Where my Daddy and Mother are waiting for me,
And the pals of my childhood once more I shall see.
Then no more will I roam,
When I'm heading right for home,
Along the road to Gundagai.

WHEN I GROW TOO OLD TO DREAM

We have been gay, going our way,
Life has been beautiful,
We have been young.
After you've gone, life will go on,
Like an old song we have sung.
*When I grow too old to dream,
I'll have you to remember.
When I grow too old to dream,
Your love will live in your heart.
So kiss me, my sweet, and so let us part;
And when I grow too old to dream,
That kiss will live in my heart.*

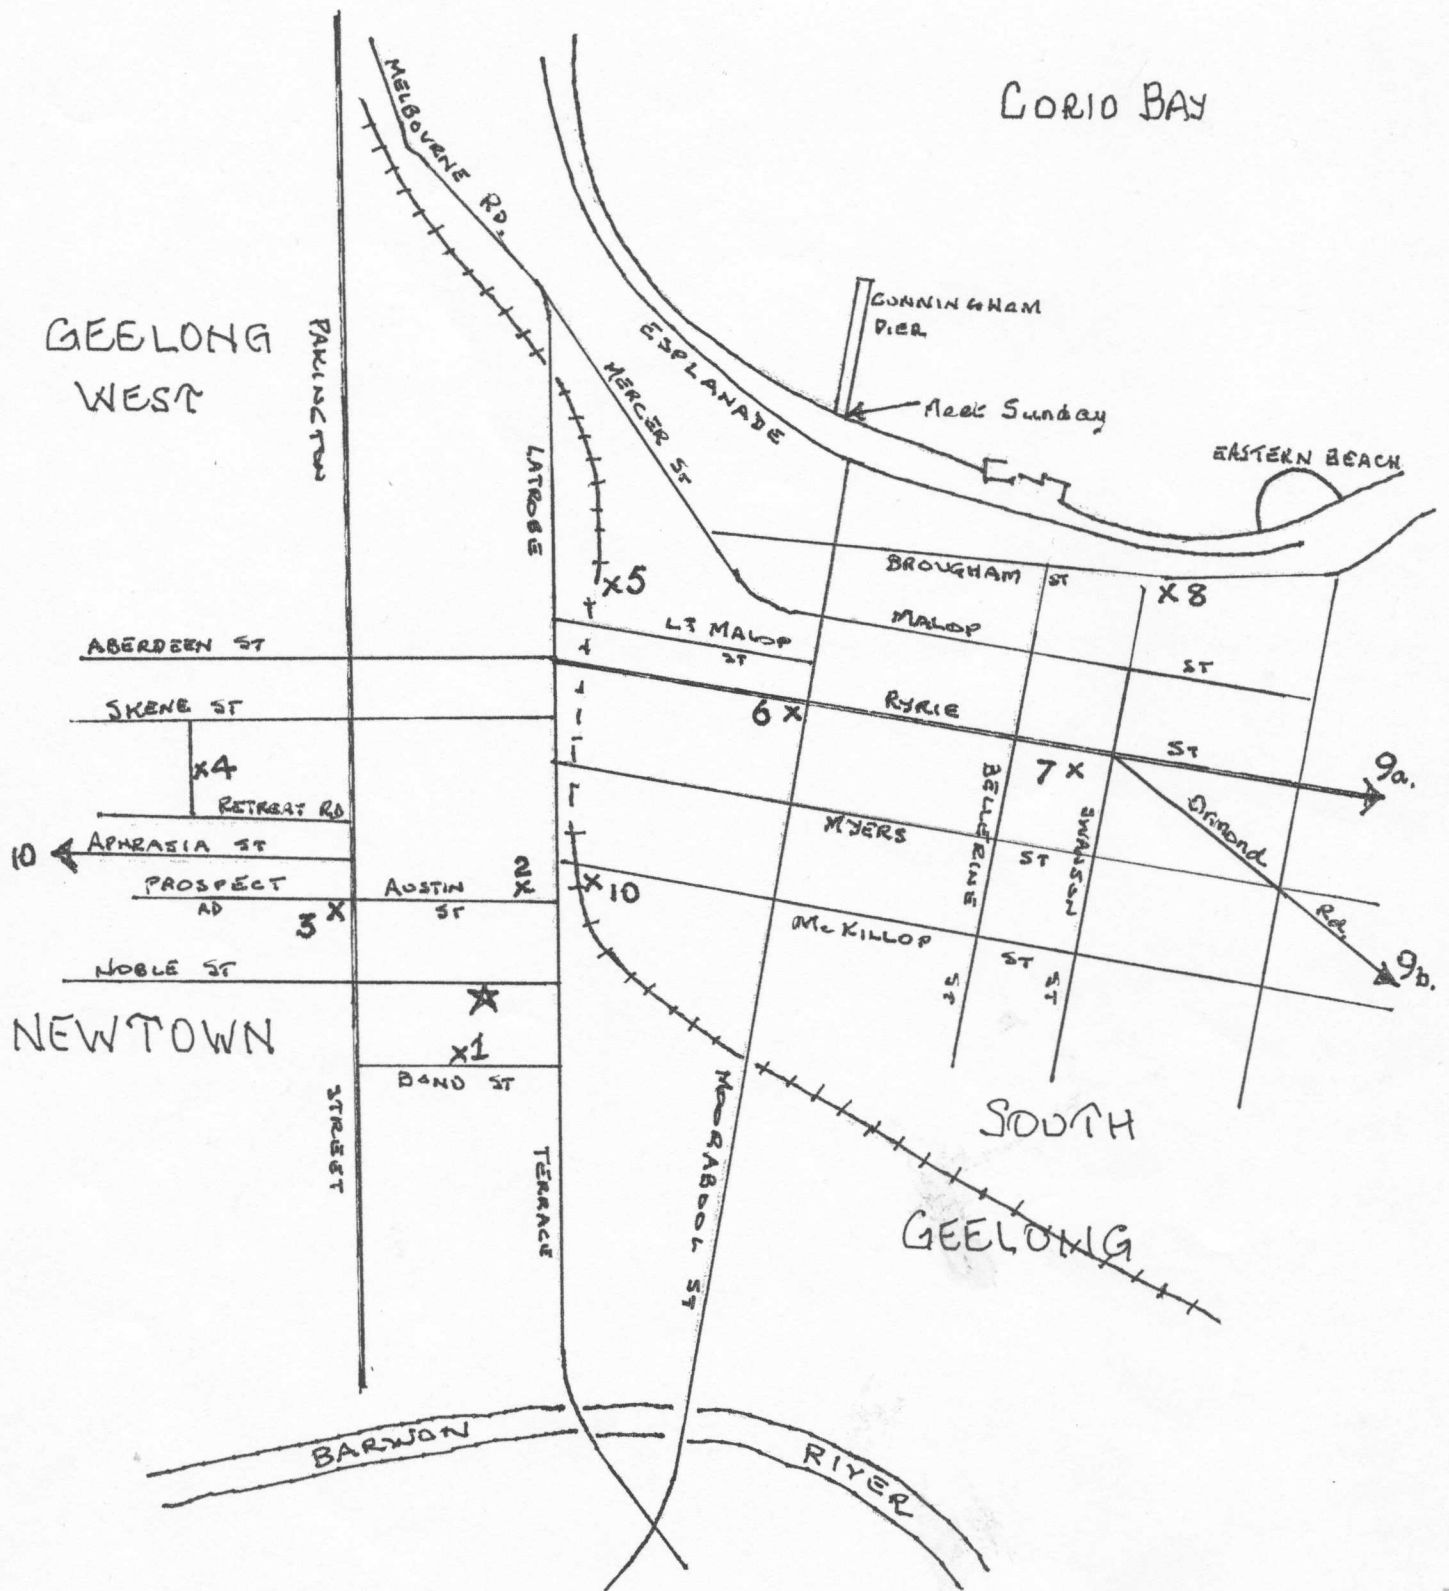

DOWN BY THE RIVERSIDE.

I met my little bright-eyed doll, down by the river-side;
Down by the river-side,
Down by the river-side:
I met my little bright-eyed doll, down by the river-side;
Down by the river-side.
I asked her for a little kiss, down by the river-side;
Down by the river-side,
Down by the river-side:
I asked her for a little kiss, down by the river-side;
Down by the river-side.
*She said, "Have patience little man,
I'm sure you'll understand,
I hardly know your name."
I said, "If I can have my way
Maybe some sweet day,
My name and yours will be the same."*
I'd wed my little bright-eyed doll, down by the river-side;
Down by the river-side, down by the river-side;
I'd wed my little bright-eyed doll, down by the riverside;
Down by the river-side.

I STILL CALL AUSTRALIA HOME.

I've been to cities that never close down,
From New York, to Rio, and old London Town;
But no matter how far or how wide I roam,
I still call Australia home.
All the sons and daughters spinning round the world;
Away from their family and friends,
But as the world gets older, and colder,
It's good to know where your journey ends.
But no matter how far or how wide I roam,
I still call Australia home.

But someday we'll all be together once more,
When all of the ships come back to the shore;
I realize something I've always known,
I still call Australia home.
All the sons and daughters, spinning round the world:
Away from their family and friends,
But as the world gets older, and colder,
It's good to know where your journey ends.
But no matter how far or how wide I roam,
I still call Australia home.
